

The image shows a 6x6 grid with numbers and diamond-shaped nodes. The numbers are placed in the cells, and the diamond shapes are placed at the intersections. Lines connect the diamond shapes, forming a path or network. The numbers are: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. The diamond shapes are located at the intersections of the grid lines.